

Lorena Justribó Manion

Dancer, choreographer and performer (Spain / Australia)

Starts to dance at an early age and hasn't stopped since. She graduates with distinction in contemporary dance at Institut del Teatre Barcelona and immediately after she becomes a member of Metros Dance Company from the director and choreographer Ramón Oller.

In 2010, she moves to Germany to dance for Staatstheater Braunschweig, with the director and choreographer Jan Pusch. Performing in pieces from Jan Pusch and several guest choreographers such as; Jo Strømgren, Yossi Berg & Oded Graf, among others. During this period, she has the opportunity to create her own dance piece called "Coco". This process awakens her need of exploring new creative paths and she decides to become a freelance artist with base in Berlin. Throughout her career, she has worked with inspiring artists such as Annabelle Bónnery, Quan Bui Gnoc, Ania Aristarkhova, Jiri Bartovanec , Judith Sánchez Ruiz.

In her more than 10 years as a professional dancer she has performed on the stages of Teatro Real de Madrid, Deutsche Oper Berlin, Tanzhaus Zurich, Halles des Schaerbeek Brussels, Saddler's Wells London, Teatre Nacional de Catalunya, Hong Kong Grand Theater among others.

Since 2015 she is part of the cast of Sasha Waltz & Guests, participating in multiple pieces and having starred in "Romeo et Juliette".

Class description :

The class will consist of a warm-up, opening our joints, followed by an individual work where we will explore different movement qualities and physical sensations connecting with the imaginary. We will continue learning movement sequences, working on posture, gaining spatial awareness, improvising together and connecting to the pleasure for movement.

My desire is to transmit my passion for dance and help everyone to develop, having some tools to express through their body.
